

Dawoodi Collection

Mr. Khalil-ur-Rehman Dawoodi, a resident of Lahore is an old Aligarian and holds a masters degree in the subject of geography. He is a free lance scholar and an old books dealer at Lahore. He has a very rich collection of manuscripts, rare books and periodicals/ newspapers. From time to time he has offered many archival materials to the National Archives of Pakistan which were purchased from him in lots. The material thus acquired consists of manuscripts, provincial legislative council debates, faramine, rare-books, old Government publications, periodicals, dictionaries, and magazines. The collection pertains to the period 1858-1989 and is open to the scholars.
